We are delighted to be using the “Riedel Restaurant” range of glasses. These have been especially developed for use in restaurants. The glasses work on the principle of matching the shape of the bowl with a particular grape variety combined with thin, highly polished rims to help direct wine to the right taste zone on the palate.

We hope you will enjoy them.

All prices are inclusive of value added tax.

A discretionary service charge of 12.5% will be added to your account

Wines by the Glass

White Wine	175ml	125ml
Turning Heads, Sauvignon Blanc	£8.50	£6.00
Region: Marlborough, New Zealand 2011
Sourced from young vines from the Wairau Estate Vineyards this Wine has a vibrant aroma of ripe gooseberries, herb and nettle aromas to accentuate the Marlborough calling card. The selection of fruit is blended to create an expressive dry white that exhibits tropical flavours of pineapple and lime yet retains a crisp citrus acidity to balance a richly textured palate.
La Playa, Viognier	£9.00	£6.50
Region: Colchagua Valley, Chile 2011
Viognier has become a fashionable grape variety and the cooler coastal regions in Chile make some excellent examples. This is a terrific, lively example with quite an exotic aroma of dried apricots, pineapple, banana and lychee. Vibrant tropical flavours flash across the tongue before expanding on the palate with a long, dry and pleasant finish.
Domaines Schlumberger, “Les Princes Abbés” Riesling	£10.00	£7.50
Region: Alsace, France 2006
Riesling is Alsace’s noblest grape variety. This wine has a distinguished nose dominated by mature fruity scents of citrus and candied lemons. The palate is fresh and well balanced with delicate spice and citrus fruits. Ginger and lemon comes to mind. This Riesling is made using grapes from the Bollenberg plot and Schlumberger’s Grand cru vineyards, Saering and Kessler.
Hamilton Russell Vineyards, Chardonnay	£15.00	£12.00
Region: Hemel-En-Aarde Valley, South Africa 2008
Bright yellow with a golden tinge, a highly nuanced nose combines white peach, pineapple, great minerality, musky ginger and leesy nuances, all lifted by a floral topnote; like a hypothetical blend of Meursault and Chassagne. Densely packed, brisk and deep, with lovely racy acidity and a rocky element giving a light touch and impressive energy to the flavors of citrus and stone fruits, nutmeg and minerals. Finishes very subtle and very long, with excellent grip. This has all the elements to please the Burgundy lover-and all in an understated way
Rosé Wines	175ml	125ml
La Playa, Cabernet Rose	£8.50	£6.00
Region: Colchagua Valley, Chile 2009
Chile is at the forefront of South American winemaking. This is a delicious dry rose with fruity aromas that include watermelon and fresh cherries, as well as notes of flowers and a touch of candy. On the palate it is tasty and fresh with a persistent balanced finish making it ideal as an aperitif or with food.

Wines by the Glass

Red Wines

Carmenère, La Playa

£9.00

£6.50

Region: Colchagua Valley, Chile 2010

Deep ruby in colour this is Chile's signature red grape varietal. Deliciously intense with hints of chocolate and pepper aromas. Medium bodied on the palate with smooth, fresh berry fruit flavours, lightly oaked to give a creamy vanilla taste in the finish.

Pinot Noir, Turning Heads

£11.00

£8.00

Region: Marlborough, New Zealand 2010

Produced from premium fruit grown on the Wairau River Estate, the vines have been patiently maturing to produce wines that have great complexity and weight. Aged in a combination of new and old fine grain French oak for 10 months, this cherry coloured wine has clean fresh fruit aromas. The palate has ripe fruit characters of plums and raspberries along with smoky oak and well integrated tannins. A medium bodied wine with a sustained finish.

Rioja Reserva, Ramon Bilbao

£14.00

£11.00

Region: Spain, 2006

Established in 1924 by Ramon Bilbao Murga, a prominent wine trader of his time, today the Bodegas is at the forefront of winemaking in Rioja. Winemaker Santos Calahorra makes wine with a modern style and together with the up to date packaging, the wines have received much acclaim in the press and they were voted Winery of the Year in 2009. Carefully selected from the vineyards in the Rioja Alta, with 20 months of ageing in American oak casks as well as further ageing in the cellar, this wine displays deep cherry red colours, with aromas of blackberries, cedar, leather and spices. Good balance on the palate with a long finish

Lagar Reserva, Quinta da Falorca

£15.00

£12.00

Region: Dão, Portugal 2004

Touriga nacional dominates this blend. This wine is expressive of eucalyptus, cassis and mint with a cherry background. The palate has an impressive ripeness with an almost chalky red fruit character. A silky texture with well integrated oak and blackcurrant, this is a wine with big character.

Marsannay 'La Combe', Domaine Sylvain Pataille

£16.00

£13.00

Region: Burgundy, France 2008

Made from 100% pinot noir, this wine comes from a lesser-known burgundy village just north of Gevery-Chambertin. Made by a top consultant wine maker Sylvain Pataille who is currently advising 15 different domaines. The wine displays all the sumptuous red berry fruit one expects from Burgundy's great red grape variety. Medium bodied with a great freshness of style that would complement fish, poultry and lighter game meats
